

My dream was always to become a footballer for a very long time and score a goal! 8am in the morning I woke up to go to my football club, when I was getting ready I just remembered my bully she always said. "You will never be a footballer hahahaha ha!" but I didn't let that stop me! After the football club I saw a letter near my door! It said, "You are invited to play for your national football team-Scotland." My eyes were as big as balloons! I was so excited, I was jumping around every where like a frog!

Next I walked to the stadium... I was so scared and excited at the same time! Then I was in the girls changing room and surprisingly it smelt very nice! I put on my socks first and then my football boots! Next we made our way to rip Hampden Pitch. It was huge! All of a sudden I saw all the eyes on me since I was first in line- it was so scary! There were so many people shouting and screaming very loudly!

Next the game started. We were playing when someone passed the ball to me and I froze for 5 seconds but then kicked the ball the awkwardly! I was so embarrassed but then about 3 seconds later... IT WENT IN THE NET! I was so happy , the crowd went crazy they were so loud. Sadly some were not which included my bully! But I was so happy my parents were very proud of me and that was the best day of my life!
